

Amy Corriveau, M. Ed. (Ex-Officio)

Early Childhood Education Arizona Department of Administration Ms. Corriveau is the Deputy Associate Superintendent for Early Childhood Education at the Arizona Department of Education. While employed with the Arizona Department of Education, she has been a Program Specialist for Full Day Kindergarten and Early Childhood Special Education.

Ms. Corriveau, a product of the Paradise Valley School System, received her BS degree from Creighton University in elementary education and master's degree from Arizona State University in elementary education, with a specialization in early childhood education.

As an Executive Board Member for the Valley of the Sun Association for the Education of Young Children, she has worked to provide quality professional development to instructional staff in the field of early care and education. Ms. Corriveau serves as adjunct faculty for ASU where she teaches classes specializing in serving children with disabilities in schools and the community.

Throughout her career, Ms. Corriveau has been an advocate of developmentally appropriate practices, inclusion of all children, and tribal education issues. Ms. Corriveau was formerly a caregiver in a childcare center, Head Start teacher, first grade teacher, special education teacher, and high school ECE Program Coordinator.

Amy Corriveau, M. Ed. Ex-Officio
Deputy Associate Superintendent for Department of Education